Re: Indus Holding Company
Case 32-RD-240311

Dear Ms. Ochoa:

This letter acknowledges receipt of the Petitioner's "Request for Review" in the above-mentioned case. Pursuant to Section 102.71 of the Board's Rules and Regulations, the Petitioner may obtain review of the Regional Director's decision to hold the petition in abeyance by filing a request with the Executive Secretary of the National Labor Relations Board. The request for review must conform to the requirements of Section 102.67(d) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.

Section 102. 71(b) of the Board's Rules and Regulations provides that:

(b) A review of an action of a Regional Director pursuant to this subsection may be granted only upon one or more of the following grounds:

- (1) That a substantial question of law or policy is raised because of (i) the absence of, or (ii) a departure from, officially reported Board precedent.
- (2) There are compelling reasons for reconsideration of an important Board rule or policy.
- (3) The Regional Director's action is, on its face, arbitrary or capricious.

The Petitioner's "Request for Review," filed on May 11, 2019, fails to satisfy the above requirements, and therefore will not be considered by the Board. The Petitioner may conform the filing as a request for review to meet the requirements set forth above, and re-file the request for review with the Board in Washington D.C. by Monday, May 20, 2019.

Furthermore, contrary to the Board's Rules and Regulations, the Petitioner has not filed with the Board an affidavit of service showing that the Request for Review had been served on the Employer, and the Regional Director for Region 32. See Section 102.114 of the Board's Rules and Regulations. Accordingly, the Petitioner must provide proof that the request for review has been properly served on all parties in an Affidavit of Service to be filed in conjunction with the conformed request for review by Monday, May 20, 2019. Failure to file this affidavit may result in the rejection of the request for review.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Farah Z. Qureshi
Associate Executive Secretary
